Please note that we are not responsible for the privacy principles of other sites. We recommend that you read the privacy announcement on each site that contains personal information when you visit the site.

What type of cookies do we use?

We place strictly necessary cookies on your browser to ensure that our website delivers you information speedily, securely and optimally. Our website may also use third party services, who may set their own cookies on your browser.

Our website uses Google Analytics which uses cookies to provide us with information on how people use our website, including the number of visitors to our website and the webpages they visited. This information helps us to analyze the performance of our website so that we can make improvements.

According to Google, Google Analytics collects first-party cookies, data related to your device/browser, IP address and on-site/app activities to measure and report statistics about your interactions on websites and/or apps that use Google Analytics. Google Analytics uses your IP address to derive your geolocation. For more information about Google Analytics, please see <http://www.google.com/analytics/learn/privacy.html>.

Disclosure of your personal data to third parties

Google Analytics may also transfer your data to third parties in certain circumstances – please see “When Google shares your information” under Google’s Privacy Policy. We will not disclose your personal data to any other third parties unless we are obliged to under a court order or other legislative or regulatory requirement.

Acceptance of Privacy Policy Changes

When you use our website or services, you consent to allow us to collect, use, disclose, and process your personal information. As defined in these privacy policies, we reserve the right to collect, use, disclose and process your personal information. According to these privacy policies, Thai Trade Center North America may change these privacy policies from time to time. As described at the beginning of this Privacy Policy, we will display the changes on this website to notify you.

Cookies – consent, withdrawal and disabling

We rely on consent as the ground for using cookies. We will only use cookies for the specific purposes referred to above. You have the right to withdraw consent at any time. This does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

You may refuse consent or withdraw your consent to the use of cookies at any time by disabling cookies. You may disable cookies by adjusting your browser settings accordingly. If you want to remove previously stored cookies, you may clear your browser’s cookies. Please refer to your browser’s help menu for instructions on how to disable and/or remove cookies. For further information, please see <http://www.allaboutcookies.org/manage-cookies/>. We are not responsible for the content of <http://www.allaboutcookies.org/manage-cookies/>. Please note that if you disable cookies, our website may not function properly.

To provide website visitors the ability to prevent their website visit activity being available to Google Analytics, Google has developed the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on for the Google Analytics JavaScript (ga.js, analytics.js, dc.js). If you would like to opt-out of Google Analytics, you should download and install the add-on for your web browser. The use of the opt-out browser add-ons does not prevent data from being sent to our website itself or to other web analytics services. However, use of opt-out browser add-ons can affect some website functions.
